Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III [X]

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission: To serve equally the members of the legal profession and the public by defending liberty and delivering justice as the national representative of the legal profession.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? [] Yes [X] No

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? [] Yes [X] No

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 0 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0) ABA Sections, Divisions, Forums: The American Bar Association is the largest voluntary professional association in the world. Throughout its history, the ABA has demonstrated an ability to anticipate the needs of the legal profession and to respond to the needs of a changing society. The ABA brings the resources of a large national organization to the analysis and development of policy on issues that are of concern to both the profession and the public. Much of this work is carried out through the entities of the Association, primarily Sections, Divisions and Forums (See Schedule O for continuation)

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 0 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0) The ABA provided over 630 separate continuing legal education (CLE) programs to more than 90,000 lawyers in this fiscal year. These programs included National Institutes at locations across the U.S., educational programs at meetings of ABA sections and other entities, live webinars, teleconferences, and on-demand webinars and MP3 downloads. By ensuring the continuing education and professional development of the nation's lawyers, the ABA contributes to a strong system of justice and professionalism, as well as the protection of clients, the public, and the courts.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 0 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0) Legal Publishing: ABA publishes and distributes legal content both as a member benefit and for sale to members and non-members. This year the ABA produced more than 215 member-benefit magazines, newsletters, journals, and electronic newsletters that address a wide variety of legal topics. These periodicals were distributed to approximately 400,000 members, and to a variety of law school and law firm libraries. Legal periodicals published by the ABA included more than 330 individual issues and offered substantive legal expertise in every legal discipline, information on legal ethics and professionalism, and career guidance on the practice of law and related disciplines. The ABA also publishes both print and electronic versions of the ABA Journal, which is provided free to approximately 400,000 members, as well as to numerous libraries interested in legal topics. ABA also published more than 250 books and ebooks that were sold or distributed to more than 85,000 customers. (See Schedule O for continuation)

4d Other program services. (Describe in Schedule O.) (Expenses $ 0 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

4e Total program service expenses 0

Part XIV Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide the descriptions required for Part II, lines 3, 5, and 9; Part III, lines 1a and 4; Part IV, lines 1b and 2b; Part V, line 4; Part X, line 2; Part XI, line 8; Part XII, lines 2d and 4b; and Part XIII, lines 2d and 4b. Also complete this part to provide any additional information.

Part V Line 4 The endowment funds are held by a tax-exempt related organization, ABA Fund for Justice and Education (FJE). ABA uses the proceeds from the endowment funds to provide a predictable stream of funding for ABA programs.

Part X Line 2 The ABA, JOB and FJE are qualified under the US Internal Revenue Code (Code) as tax-exempt organizations or, in the case of the FJE, as a tax-exempt fund, and are exempt from tax on income related to their tax-exempt purposes under Section 501(a) of the Code. The ABA is exempt from income tax as an association described in Section 501(c)(6) of the Code. The JOB is exempt under Section 501(c)(2), and the FJE is exempt under Section 501(c)(3).

Part X The FJE and other organizations do not have any material unrelated business income.

Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended August 31, 2012 and 2011.

Part X Line 2 There are no amounts of interest and penalties associated with the tax matters that are recognized in the ABA's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended August 31, 2012 and 2011.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

Part I Line 2 The ABA has recipient monitoring procedures in place to ensure adequate control of funds that are awarded. These procedures include the review of grantee financial and narrative reports, periodic on-site monitoring of grantee programs and financial operation, review of cash management procedures to minimize the cash on hand by recipients, and the review and appropriate follow-up on recipient audits including any deficiencies noted.

Part I Line 2 Grant recipients typically are selected in consultation with the funding agency.

Part I Line 2 The majority of the scholarships are paid directly to the colleges and universities that the award winners are attending. The remaining awards are paid as stipends to under-represented law students pursuing unpaid clerkships with judges. The stipends for clerkships are taxable to the grantee.

Form 990 Part III Line 4a The ABA provides lawyers unparalleled opportunities for professional growth and service through numerous groups dedicated to specific areas of law. The Association currently has 23 Sections, which range in size from about 3,600 members to more than 60,000; 15 Divisions; and 6 Forums. All of these groups draw their membership from lawyers or judges with common professional interests. Sections include the following legal areas: Administrative Law and Regulatory Practice; Antitrust; Business; Criminal Justice; Dispute Resolution; Environment, Energy and Resources; Family Law; General Practice; Solo & Small Firm; Government and Public Sector Law; Health Law; Individual Rights and Responsibilities; Intellectual Property; International Law; Labor and Employment; Law Practice Management; Legal Education; Litigation; Public Contract Law; Public Utility, Communications and Transportation Law; Science and Technology Law; Tort and Insurance Practice; Tax; and State and Local Government Law. Divisions include: Young Lawyers, Judges and their Staff; Senior Lawyers; Law Students; Public Education; and Bar Services. The Division for Public Services has Committees that focus on the improvement of the electoral process, support for the Law Library of Congress, Bioethics, National Security, Mental and Physical Disability Law, and Environmental Law. The Public Service Division also focuses on a number of social problems with legal ramifications: immigration, homelessness and poverty, and substance abuse. The Division for Public Education seeks to advance public understanding of the law and its role in society, with a special emphasis upon youth education. Forums explore new areas of developing law, such as franchising, e-commerce, entertainment and sports law, the construction industry, and affordable housing and community development. Sections, Divisions and Forums within the ABA provide members myriad opportunities for professional development, leadership development, networking, pro bono contributions, and education within their own particular field of interest and expertise.

Sections and Divisions also contribute to policy-making on issues of importance to both lawyers and the public. Sections originate many of the recommendations that become the ABA's policy positions, and act as checks and balances on recommendations of other entities. Through the work of these groups, the ABA benefits the public through improvement of both the profession and the legal system.

Form 990 Part III Line 4c These books offered guidance and counsel in every legal discipline and every aspect of a legal career. Many of these excellent books would not have been published by a commercial publisher because their revenue potential is not great enough for a commercial model. However, these publications are of great value to the profession, providing vital information to keep lawyers up to date on developments in the law. Thus ABA publications serve clients, the public and the courts by improving the education and professionalism of the nation's lawyers. Because ABA's mission is to serve the profession, many disciplines and authors are able to publish vital and timely information that would not otherwise be available to the profession.

Form 990 Part VI Section A Line 6 The members of the Nominating Committee of the House of delegates nominate the members of the Board of Governors, the elective offices of the Association - (President, President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, and Chair of the House of Delegates). Members who register for the annual meeting elect six members of the House of Delegates; the House elects the Board of Governors, the Chair of the House, and the officers. Members may nominate officers and governors by presenting a nominating petition to the nominating committee with the number of member signatures specified in the bylaws for each elected position. Members may initiate a referendum to change or initiate ABA policy by filing a petition with the requisite number of signatures.

Form 990 Part VI Section A Line 6 The House, by majority vote, can direct a referendum on a question relating to the substance of the law, the administration of justice or the policy of the Association. In either case, the majority of members casting a ballot determine the result. All members may attend the meetings of the House of Delegates and may submit a report and recommendation for consideration by the House.

Form 990 Part VI Section A Line 7a The ABA House of Delegates elects the Board of Governors, the officers, and the Chair of the House. The House is designed to be representative of the legal profession in the United States. Members of the Association who register for the annual meeting elect six delegates-at-large. ABA members of each state elect state delegates; ABA members who belong to state and qualifying local Bar Associations also elect delegates, the number being dependent upon the number of ABA members and lawyers in the respective state or local association. Association members of ABA sections, divisions and judicial conferences elect section/division delegates. Each section has a minimum of two delegates, with additional delegates dependent on the number of members in each section.

Form 990 Part VI Section A Line 7a The U.S. Virgin Islands Bar Association elects a delegate, and the Bar Associations of Guam and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands share one elected rotating delegate. State, local and territorial bar associations elect delegates according to their own rules. For purposes of election to the Board, the House is grouped into eighteen geographical districts. Governors serve staggered three year terms; the House elects approximately one-third of the Board, and the President-Elect at each annual meeting. The Board of Governors consists of one member from each of the 18 geographical districts, six section members-at-large, and one non-voting law student member-at-large.

Form 990 Part VI Section A Line 7a The President, Chair of the House, President-Elect, Immediate Past President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the ABA are ex-officio members of the Board of Governors, and every third year the Treasurer-Elect and Secretary-Elect also are included on the Board of Governors. The House elects the Chair of the House for a two-year term in even-numbered years; every third year the House elects the Treasurer and Secretary a year in advance for three year terms.

Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 11a Prior to filing the return with the IRS, it is reviewed by the organization's management and then reviewed by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee includes members of the Board of Governors as well as members of the ABA who are not members of the Board. The Form 990 is emailed to all members of the ABA Board prior to filing the form with the IRS.

J) questionnaire this year. All responses were reviewed by the Accounting team at the ABA. If a Board member discloses a conflict, the Board member must recuse themselves from any matter involving the disclosed conflict, and the recusal is noted in the minutes. Additionally, staff assigned to the Board of Governors distribute COI forms to Board members prior to each Board meeting and collect the completed COI forms.

Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 15a The Compensation Committee of the ABA Board of Governors reviewed compensation information of comparable entities and performance assessments of the top management position and made a recommendation to the full ABA Board of Governors. The ABA Board of Governors must approve the final compensation. This process occurs every year and was last performed in 2011.

Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 15b The Compensation Committee of the ABA Board reviews compensation information of comparable entities and performance of other officers and key employees. When other officer and key employee positions become vacant the compensation is reviewed by the Association's Executive Director and Human Resources department based on guideline recommendations of the Compensation Committee. The ABA Board approves the final compensation of the Executive Director of the American Bar Association. This process occurs every year and was last performed in calendar year 2011. The Association President and the President-Elect receive $100,000 and $50,000 respectively in compensation for their positions.

There has been a long-standing practice and written agreement that the compensation for the President and President-Elect is paid directly to their respective law firms.
